

Handwritten text in cursive script on lined paper. The text is written in black ink and spans across approximately 15 lines. The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of the late 19th or early 20th century. The text is mostly illegible due to the cursive style and some fading, but appears to be a personal letter or a journal entry. It begins with a salutation that looks like "Dear Mother" and ends with a closing like "Yours affectionately".
