

The 10th charity concert of the Foundation for Mongolian Culture (MUSS) was held in Tokyo on August 8th 2015.

On August 8th 2015, the 10th charity concert of the Foundation for Mongolian Culture was successfully held in Takinogawa Assembly Hall in Kitaku of Tokyo.

Most sincere thanks to audiences, performers, and volunteers who supported the concert.

We have been so much honored to gathering artists and performers who from Mongolia, Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region, Inner Mongolia Autonomous Region and Japan. The diversity of Mongolian traditional music and dance were successfully delivered by collaboration of Mongolian and Japanese artists.

We take this opportunity to express gratitude again to audiences, performers and workers, and we do anticipate your guidance, advice and support in the future also.

Reception

Greeting from Has Baator, President of MUSS

Urtyn duu (Long song) : The Lord Genghis Khan

Throat Singing: Hymn of the Altai

Mongolian Traditional Dance : Mongolian Bowl Dance

Bamboo Flute : Esashi oiwake music

Urtyn duu:Shadow of Hurentolgoi mountain

Piano : I want to go to the Bright Horizon

Memories of Autumn

Morin Huur Performance : To the Wind of Gallant Horse

Chorus: Teaching of Parents; Mongolian Alphabet Song

Throat singing: Fire

Mongolian Song: Torugood Notag

Oirat dance: Sabardan

Morin Huur Performance: Borjigin Grassland

Mongolian Dance: Mongolian Women

Mongolian Dance: Naadam